

“Sir, I want to become an actor.”

- “Wonderful. Tell me... is acting just an interest, or do you see it as your life’s calling?”
 - “Most people want fame. Serious actors want mastery. Which one are you?”
 - “Good. I have trained actors for over 50 years. If you are ready to work sincerely, I can help you discover your true instrument—you. Would you like to begin?”
-

“I’m thinking about joining.”

- “Fair enough. May I ask—what is stopping you? Fear, confusion, money, family pressure... or self-doubt?”
 - “Thank you for being honest. Most actors don’t fail because of lack of talent. They fail because nobody guides them correctly in the beginning.”
 - “Would you like proper guidance instead of trial and error?”
-

The Parent Enquiry

“My son/daughter is interested.”

- “I understand. Every parent wants safety and a real future for their child.”
 - “My job is not to create stars. My job is to build discipline, confidence, communication, and personality—acting becomes a bonus.”
 - “Would you like your child to grow as an artist and as a person?”
-

“Fees kitni hai?”

- “Certainly, I’ll tell you. But before fees... may I understand your goal? Hobby, confidence building, or professional acting career?”
 - (Then give a fee.) for fees call all no. 9820224455/ 9324193301 & 8369029446
 - “The fee is for the course. The transformation is priceless.”
-

“Sir, mujhme confidence nahi hai.”

- “That’s exactly why you should train. Confidence is not born. It is built.”
- “Many students came to me nervous. Today they perform fearlessly.”
- “Would you like to experience that change personally?”
- “Over the years I’ve trained hundreds of actors, newcomers and professionals.”

- “But your journey is not about others.”
 - “Tell me... what actor is hiding inside you?”
-

“My family doesn’t support acting.”

- “I understand. Families usually fear uncertainty, not your dream.”
 - “My role is to help you become so skilled that your work speaks louder than arguments.”
-

- “Acting is not glamour. Acting is truth.”
 - “If you are looking for shortcuts, I may not be the right trainer.”
 - “But if you want real craft...”
“My doors are open.”
 - “Talent may bring you to the door... but training builds the actor.”
 - “Would you like me to personally help bring your actor alive?”
-

“For 50 years, I have not trained actors... I have awakened them.”

Kishore Namit Kapoor